

Privacy Policy

Introduction

Striide takes your privacy seriously. This privacy policy describes how and why we obtain, store, and process data which can identify you. We may update this policy from time to time and shall indicate on the web site when changes have been made.

The Information we collect

Information is collected from you when you register with us, or when you contribute to or use some of the advanced features on the site. The information we collect is clearly set out on the web page on which we collect it. See for example our enquiry form. In addition, we may collect your IP address and use cookies unless you configure your web browser not to accept them.

Why we collect it

We collect information about you so that we can personalise your use of the site, assist your use of the site, and improve the site generally. Depending upon your selections for our data protection questions we may arrange for you to be sent information about related products and services from us and carefully selected third parties (see section 4). You may update the answers to your questions at any time.

Who we disclose it to

We will only pass on information about you as an individual (as opposed to aggregate information) to third parties to enable us to perform services requested by you or with your prior consent.

If you give your consent, we will pass your contact details to third parties who may then occasionally send communications to you to provide information, offers, and services that may be of interest to you. In certain circumstances, we may need to disclose information about you if you breach this privacy policy or if you breach the Terms and Conditions. We may also disclose or access your account if required to do so by law or by any Governmental body.

We will only pass on information about you as an individual (as opposed to aggregate information) to third parties overseas to enable us to perform services requested by you.

Data Protection

The preamble to the Protection of Personal Information Bill, 2009 (“POPI”) states that it will regulate, in harmony with international standards, the processing of personal information by public and private bodies in a manner that gives effect to the right to privacy subject to justifiable limitations that are aimed at protecting other rights and important interests. Users of Striide.co.za acknowledge that Striide takes the protection of personal information seriously, and in particular the compliance with data privacy laws such as POPI.

Security

Keeping information about you secure is very important to us and certain sections of the site may encrypt data using SSL or a comparable standard. However, no data transmission over the Internet can be guaranteed to be totally secure. As a result, whilst we strive to protect your personal information, we cannot ensure or warrant the security of any information which you send to us, and you do so at your own risk.

Accessing and updating your personal information

We will always let you have a copy of the personal information we have about you, should you request it, and you may correct it if you wish. Instructions about how to do this are available from info@Striide.co.za.

Questions?

If you have any questions or complaints relating to this Privacy Policy or how we use the personal information we have about you, please contact info@Striide.co.za. We will endeavour to respond to you promptly.
